

Tri-County Beekeepers Meeting
Tuesday, May 1, 2018

Board members Bob Cross and Juliet Brambrink were present.

Bob Cross called meeting to order at 7:00.

- Six new members were present. Total attendance was approximately 100.
- Members reported successfully hiving package bees.
- Wayne and Cindy Rusch of Rusch Farms donated several new books to the library. Vern Heise will present a recap of one of the new books next month.
- New queens are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Contact Clay Walker if interested.
- Master Gardeners Maureen Graber and Jean Didier presented on “Flowers for Pollinators” and answered questions. This year’s extension topic is planting for pollinators.
- Return your package bee cages at the next meeting in order to get your deposit back.
- Watch for more information on activities at the demonstration hive.
- Wayne and Cindy will have nucs available within a week. He will contact everyone who ordered with more details. There may be some additional nucs available, contact Wayne if you are interested.
- Please return library books and check new ones out.
- Members held an open forum for questions.
- Meeting was adjourned at 8:09 pm.