

Tri County Beekeepers meeting for February 6, 2024

1. Secretary and Treasurers reports read and approved.
2. Old Business: Tom Fisher volunteered to do the financial audit so that is done.
3. Logo: Logo that was approved is the circle one. Dennis has not had an opportunity to get prices yet.
4. Mick Fry with SimplKomb gave a presentation on his product. His product is for making comb honey in your current super frames.
5. Peggy DeSota with Hive Huggers gave a presentation on their products. The product is a way to insulate your hive to avoid condensation dripping down on the bees. It puts condensation on the edges of the hive so the bees can use the water during winter.
6. Membership dues can be paid now. It is $10 per year. You can also pay on line on our web site.
7. Glenn Kooiman is coming to March meeting to take package orders. Next meeting is March 12.
8. Wayne Rusch and Sal Gonzalez are also selling NUCS.
9. Dave and Mike gave some Bee Expo give away items.
10. March meeting is March 12. Also, March is Food Shelf month so bring an item for the Church's food pantry. Honey is welcome.
11. Can people from the public be part of the mentoring group? Question was referred to Vern.
12. Meeting adjourned at 8:41 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Cindy Rusch
